<h1>About</h1>

Vanessa Marscholek lives and works in Hamburg. Since 2023, she has been studying Art Therapy (B.A.) at the Medical School Hamburg, Campus Arts and Social Change.

Her figurative paintings explore identity, self-determination, and female freedom. She focuses on female figures that move between strength, vulnerability, and independence.

Rather than clear portraits, her works read as emotional states, expressed through posture, gaze, and color.

Working with oil paint in a sensitive, intuitive way, she creates images that feel both intimate and open—leaving space for interpretation and personal reflection.

